Specified projects:

2010

U-gene, Bastian
(still work in progress) cd productions
Discovery channel Voice-over recordings and translations for Serbian market
Happy company soundscapes and music for business presentations and events

I did some more music and sound for Dutch advertising companies, and Most of all built a recording booth and Started a new Studio aimed at Audio post production. together with my wife Ana (she's a linguist and takes care of translations) we are building a new company, right now most of our energy is used building a new (different) client base, so far so good...

2009
